Leghorne, September 2. N. S.

THE laſt week arrived here an Engliſh Ship the Prince George, Capt. Samuel Skinner, from England. The Peace, Capt. Garland, and the Succeſs, Capt. Wilſon, are come in from Alexandria.

Venice, Sept. 6. The Letters from Dalmatia inform us, That the Turks have drawn moſt of their Forces from thoſe Parts, and ſent them to Hungary, to ſtrengthen the Army which the Sultan commands in Perſon. In the Morea there ſeems to be no diſpoſition to undertake any conſiderable Enterprize on either ſide; The Enemies Forces are ſaid not to be above 14 or 15000 ſtrong on that Frontier; and the Venetians content themſelves with ſecuring the Paſs, at the Iſthmus of Corinth. The Fleet, by our laſt advices, was ſtill at Andros.

Warſaw, Sept 3. The King of Poland continues at Cracow, and many of the Nobility are gone thither to aſſiſt at his Coronation, appointed for the 15th of this month; after which he intends to march with his Forces directly to this Place; where the Deputies of the late Diet that are in the French Intereſt keep together, being ſupported by the Authority of the Primate; They appear reſolved to maintain what they have done; But want the Preſence of the Prince of Conti, whom they impatiently expect; and in all likelihood their Party will be broke and diſperſed before he arrives: 'Tis diſcourſed that the General of Lithuania is falling off from them; If this be true, it will very much change Affairs to their diſadvantage. Commiſſioners are ſent to the Army, to adjuſt and pay their Arrears, which gives them great Satisfaction.

Madrid, Sept. 4. The King of Spain continues his Reſolution of going this month to Zaragoſa; for which great Preparations are made; His Catholick Majeſty was ſomewhat indiſpoſed two or three days ago, but is very well again. The Ceſſation of Arms in Catalonia expired the firſt of this month; and 'tis ſaid the French Troops intend to march towards Tarragona.

Coruna, Sept, 14. On the 12th Inſtant, came into this Port the Weymouth Man of War, Capt. Jumper Commander, and brought in a Ship laden with Wine, which he found on the Coaſt, without any Perſon on board her; and yeſterday came in the Spaniſh-Expedition Packet-Boat from Falmouth, having in her Voyage hither retaken a Scotch Veſſel of 250 Tuns and 12 Guns.

Vienna, Sept. 7. By the laſt Letters from Hungary the Turkiſh Army, which was ſaid to be compoſed of above 70000 Men, march'd towards Peter-Waradin, and 'twas believed they would Beſiege that Place; for which reaſon Prince Eugene had ſent two Regiments of Foot to reinforce the Gariſon, and was moving that way with the whole Imperial Army. The Biſhop of Raab went hence this week for Cracow, to be preſent at the King of Poland's Coronation.

Mentz, Sept. 15. On the 10th Inſtant 7 Battalions, of the Forces commanded by the Margrave of Bareith, joined Prince Lewis of Baden's Army, which is Encamped before Ebernbourg; The ſame day 6 pieces of Cannon for Battery arrived there from this Place; and 9 more the day following; The Pioneers have been 3 days at work in making the Lines of Circumvallation; and we hear this day that the Germans have begun to Batter the Place with Cannon and Mortars. The French Army commanded by Mareſchal Choiſeul, marched yeſterday nearer to Ebernbourg, and their Camp is now about 4 hours march from thence.

Hamburgh, Sept. 17. The laſt Letters from Poland give a better account of the Elector of Saxony's Affairs then we had by two or three Poſts before; Moſt of the Principal Nobility were come to attend him at his Coronation, and when that Solemnity was perform'd, 'twas not doubted but he would ſoon oblige the Party that oppoſed him to leave Warſaw; The Commiſſioners had begun to pay the Army, and there appeared ſo good a diſpoſition among the Troops in favour of the Elector, that there was reaſon to believe they would in few days declare for his Election.

Paris, Sept. 16. We have no News of the Prince of Conti, ſince what was brought by a Veſſel to Dunkirke, who left du Bart's Squadron on the 7th, about 12 Leagues at Sea; ſince his departure two Expreſſes are arrived from Poland, to preſs his haſtning thither, where his Preſence is very neceſſary to encourage and ſupport his Friends. Letters from Barcelona of the 5th ſay, the Duke de Vendoſme had paſſed the River Lobregat, and that his Army advances towards Tarragona. They write from Breſt that only 7 Ships of Monſieur Chaſteaurenaut's Squadron lay ready to ſail, the reſt being diſarmed.

Bruſſells, Sept. 18. The Elector of Bavaria came the 16th to Antwerp, from his Camp near Bruges, where he met the Prince de Vaudement, and Don Quiros, one of the Spaniſh Plenipotentiaries for the Treaty of Peace; The latter afterwards returned to the Hague. The ſeveral Armies continue in their former Camps. Hague,
